Recreation Director

FROM THE DIRECTOR

If there's one thing I've learned, it's that parks and recreation are about so much more than playgrounds and pickleball (although those are pretty great, too!). Parks and Rec departments across the country—including ours—play a big role in supporting health and wellness in our communities. Whether it's encouraging kids to stay active, offering a peaceful trail to unwind, or simply creating spaces where people can connect, we're here to help everyone feel their best—physically, mentally and socially.

Our programs are designed with you in mind. From fitness classes and sports leagues to gardening, senior meals and youth events, we're proud to offer something for all ages and interests. We believe that when people have access to safe, welcoming spaces and opportunities to move, play and grow, the whole community benefits. So, whether you're joining us for a new program or just taking a stroll in the park, know that you're doing something great for your health—and we're here to cheer you on every step of the way.

LIBRARY

Rose Barcal,
Library Director

FROM THE DIRECTOR

French critic, journalist and novelist Alphonse Karr is credited for the expression “the more things change, the more they stay the same”. While change can cause anxiety, it is also a necessity to grow, gain knowledge, and change perspectives. That’s where the library comes in! While the library can’t possibly have everything, the library does have something for everyone. The library is expanding the GED program to include evening sessions with Ms. Tammy. Library programming is constantly evaluated and improved upon. The makerspace is still available for your creative needs. Make an appointment and ask about training! Did you know the library has cake pans? Or a telescope you can check out for your star-gazing needs? There are VOX books which are children’s books that will read along with you. Areas passes are available so you can “try before you buy” a membership. Stop by the library and see us!

WHAT IS A LIBRARY?

A library is a place to connect people, resources, and experiences. It’s a place where ALL people are welcome to learn through reading, discovering, socializing and creating. A library is a community of empowered learners, enthusiastic readers and engaged citizens.

The game master then creates a story based around the results. Sometimes the best fun is when things don't go as planned. "You wanted to convince the DJ to change the music? ## At Your Service

Meet Neptune the Turtle

The library's most unique employee is a friendly turtle named Neptune, who may not shelf books or check out materials, but brings smiles and calm to everyone who visits. Neptune has her own tank behind the front desk, where she "supervises" the library staff and greets patrons with slow blinks and a quiet charm.

LVPL: What is your name, and how'd you get it?

NEPTUNE: My name is Neptune, and I am a red eared slider. Neptune was the god of the sea in Roman Mythology. I love water so my name is fitting.

LVPL: Describe yourself.

NEPTUNE: I have a beautifully patterned shell with a blend of deep olive greens and browns. My head has two signature red streaks right behind my eyes like tiny tattoos, marking me as one of a kind. I'm a silent swimmer who has sturdy and muscular limbs, firm claws, and a cute tail.

LVPL: Do you like living at the library?

NEPTUNE: I've lived at the library for about eight years. The library is more than just a building full of books. It's a home where everyone, even a turtle like me, belongs. I like the quietness of the library, watching children discover new stories, and seeing families spend time together.

LVPL: What is your role at the library?

NEPTUNE: My role is to make the library feel welcoming, peaceful, and just a little more magical.

LVPL: Who is your favorite librarian?

NEPTUNE: Ohhhh, that's a tough one! I love all librarians. They're like magical book wizards with kind eyes. But if I had to pick...it's Jean. She is my caretaker, loves me, and feeds me pellets, treats, and goldfish. Jean also cleans my tank, fixes my lamp, and makes sure I am healthy.

LVPL: Do you ever "borrow" books when no one is looking?

NEPTUNE: I wouldn't say borrow. I simply explore them when they wander into my vicinity, and I get curious. My favorite book is The Tortoise and the Hare! I cheer every time the tortoise wins.

LVPL: If you could invite one storybook character over for hot chocolate, who would it be?

NEPTUNE: Paddington Bear. He always brings marmalade sandwiches, and I bring lettuce wraps. Perfect picnic!

LVPL: If you could live in any book, which one would it be?

NEPTUNE: Winnie-the-Pooh. I'd love to be friends with Piglet and take naps in the cozy forest. I bet Pooh has a great reading nook.

LVPL: Any advice for young readers?

NEPTUNE: Read slowly. Think deeply. Return your books on time!
